BLAST FROM THE PAST

Did you know that the Marley's released their website marleystransport.com.au in August 2011? This was nearly a decade ago, the time has really flown by! The image below is what the original website used to look like.

Oops – what's gone wrong?

Traffic Accident – One of our drivers this month was travelling along Anketell Rd and had just entered the roundabout at Abercrombie Rd, when a sedan travelling along Abercrombie made the decision to also enter the roundabout at the same time. Unfortunately, the side of the sedan contacted the bulbar of the prime mover and serious damages were sustained to the vehicle. The young driver on this occasion made an error in judgement to try to beat the prime mover through the intersection and came off second best. Thankfully, no one was injured – traffic was delayed for a period of time and the young driver was not insured. Please when travelling along this road and approaching this intersection to exercise caution and expect the unexpected from anyone or anything.
